Blenheim Park's Candidate for 2022 Local Elections

Local resident, Bernard Arscott joins Blenheim Park Conservatives team

Cllr Helen Boyd

Councillor Helen Boyd writes, "I am pleased to welcome Bernard as our candidate to represent Blenheim Park in the May 2022 local elections. I know Bernard works hard and will be able to give much of his time working in the Ward on behalf of the residents".

Bernard has lived in the Ward for most of his life and is active and involved with the local community. He is a governor at a local primary school and brings additional knowledge and experience to the team, having formerly been the Southend Borough Councillor for Leigh Ward.

During his time on the Council, he served in several capacities, including being part of the committee that brought forward the proposals to introduce the Community Safety Team.

Bernard says, "I am delighted to be able to work alongside Cllr Helen Boyd, who works extremely hard on our behalf. As a local resident, I know that I share many of the issues and concerns experienced in Blenheim. Being able to work with the local Conservative team will allow me to work on your behalf to continue to find ways to improve and enhance the Ward for everyone".
